Unaffected by vagaries of life, best friends forever

I y daughter's forwarded messages save the date' popped one after the other. Her other of the other invited only vesterday I dropped her to nursery and my gregarious cherub was pals with so many angels. Fretty soon, a coterie of these naughty elves emerged. Their bond strengthened as they strode through school. Often they would drop in for 'group studies'. One candle added every birthday. As these fledglings spread across in pursuit of academics and later career, they have not only kept in touch (courtesy numerous social networking platforms) but also made it a point to get together whenever they come home for festivals or vacation. But how time flies! Time for wedding bells, unbelievable.

Me reverie was cut short by my me ties: Time or weading bens, mbelievable. My reverie was cut short by my daughter's call. She shared the colour codes for each event, type of outfit, etc. Her exuberant calls for the next couple of days kept me on tenterhooks. Who's wearing what? Who is arriving when? The gist being friends would wear similar outfits. Bridesmadis in similar methendf, design shared online among themselves. Since she would get limited off from her research work, the onus of shopping was delegated to me. I thoroughly enjoyed hunting for garments cham chair ones and matching glittery accessories, shortlisting and making video calls for approval. tery accessories, shortlisting and mak-ing video calls for approval. My share of customisation et al was done before hand. Together we surfed the net, shortlisted a few articles and saved them in the eart to be delivered on her arrival. I dubbed her arrival as OTP day. As she travelled home, one after the other articles were delivered home and OTP shared with the vendor, Off the fin we had as she tried the garments and ramp walked for me. Foor Daddy wondering what were the mother-daughter duo up to?

Backet-be-ke weddings; overlapping events; family invites and friends only functions: A little overwhelming to comprehend. A detailed Excel sheet landed for referral Events, venue, dress code, pick up and drop, stay. So, all the theory you learn can be put into practice thus. From sharing airport risks is focal travel, all meticulously planned, salonigariour visits included. They show the control of the ups' with cues to include their friend and spouse.

As parents we too attended the wed-ding festivities and I would invariably be drawn towards these giggling gang-sters. Irrespective of their professions, they were all the little schoolkids. Enjoying, supporting each other, instructing one another and exuding unconditional love and camaraderic. The sortic ended too soon, a week of central days and sleenless includes.

The sortice model too soon, avected reventful days less explose mights to she packed for he does mights as she packed for he does may tales to share, experiences and what they did, her gallery was full of pictures and videos. Solo, group but specially 'us'. In between events, they managad rendez-vous to their favourite haums, too. As I stacked the dry-cleaned garments in the closet, I offered a wistful prayer to the Almighty, May their bond remain unaffected by weathering vagaries of life, may they be friends forever.

Blast outside Kalia's RTE directive too late house exposes law & order failure

The grenade attack at the house of senior BJP leader and former minister Manoranjan Kalia has exposed the deteriorating law and order Kalia has exposed the deteriorating law and order situation in the border state. In cecent months, Punjab has seen multiple bomb attacks on police posts, raising concerns about the police's shillip to effectively respond to these incidents. Police have lost its moral mooring by being involved in "illegal activities" be it drug peddling, as one of the police constables was caught with drugs, or cops involved in a brawl with an armyman. The state government sould take corrective steps to make the common man regain faith in common man regain faith in law enforcement authorities.

The state governments of Punjab and Haryana have directed private schools to strictly adhere to the Right to Education (RTE) Act and government orders regarding government orders regarding the sale and recommendation of school books and uniforms, ensuring compliance with these regulations. Sadly, these recommendations have been issued by the have been issued by the authorities too late to be fany help to the affected parents since the new academic session has already started and most of the parents have bought the expensive book sets and uniforms. If the state governments are really serious in helping the parents, such orders ought to be issued much before the start of the new academic session.

While Punjab's 72,000-crore school infrastructure rexamp is a positive step, its success depends on improving the quality of education. Without addressing issues like teacher training and curriculum, the improvements could be superficial, failing to ruly benefit students. It's crucial to recognise that multifaceted approach is required approach is required or its mediate sees systemic problems.
