Srinagar cops detain labourers protesting for regularisation

SRINAGAR: Scores of daily-wage labourers and contractual employees from government departments were detained by police in Srinagar on Monday during a protest seeking regularisation.

The employees, who although belong to quieter in Press Colony in city centre Lal Chowk, were dispersed by police.

Protesters said some of them had been working for over two decades. "We are fed up with looking these protests day in and day out. We request the authorities to settle our issues. We are finding it difficult to take care of our families and are not able to pay for our parents' medicines or the school fees of our children," said one of the protesters.

He said that there are around 66,000 daily-wage worker, contractual labourers and seasonal labourers have been seeking regularisation for years.

"We don't want to come out on roads. Government should do justice to us and solve our issues once and for all," the protester added, requesting not to be named.

Another protester pointed out that the Omar Abdullah-led National Conference government, which won the assembly elections last year, had promised regularisation in its manifesto but has not done anything.

"Did we vote for Omar to get humiliated on roads like this? Why isn't the elected government taking any action in our matter," the protester said.

Expressing serious concern over administration's failure to fulfill its promise, Communist Party of India (CPI Marxist) leader Mohammad Yousuf Tarigami said the poor workers were already suffering due to the non-payment of wages for months.

36 hours & counting: Power outage in Ggm areas not yet restored

letters@hindustantimes.com

GURUGRAM: For 36 hours at least 10,000 families in 22 Gurugram housing societies have been under a power blackout. The outage occurred due to a fire in a grid substation at 8.40am on Sunday, affecting sectors 99, 102, 103, 107, 108 and 109 along the Dwarka Expressway.

On Monday night officials said that supply might be restored by early Tuesday morning, and a committee will be formed to conduct a detailed inquiry into the fire.

In the meantime, the affected housing societies have been using backup diesel generator sets.

Residents said that the continuous extended use of diesel generator sets is not only extremely expensive but also highly polluting. Residents also pointed to the frequent power cuts in the new sectors along the Dwarka Expressway.

Officials said that the fire occurred in the high-capacity substation in Sector 107 that was especially constructed to cater to the needs of the new sectors, housing societies and townships along the Dwarka Expressway.

We expect that the supply will be restored by Monday midnight or early Tuesday morning according to the communication from Haryana Vidyut Prasaran Nigam Limited officials," said Manoj Kumar, executive engineer (City division) Dakshin Haryana Bijli Vitran Nigam Limited.

Officials peg losses from fire at ₹11 crore

Officials said that the overall estimated loss due to the fire, damaged equipment and disruption of power supply due to the incident is at least ₹10-12 crore.

Brigadier Anil Handa (retired), resident representative committee of Indiabulls City in Sector 108, said, "This severe outage will end up causing the residents to pay exorbitant energy bills. The incident raises questions about the maintenance DVVN is carrying out."
