Nadda failed to secure HP's interests, Anandhi

CHANDIGARH: Punjab development and public works minister Anandhi Singh had criticised Union Health Minister J. Nadda for not listening to allegations "levelled" against the state government and the Congress during his recent visit to Bilgaon district. He is also pointing out the negligence of Union Health Minister Nadda in the past two years. Nadda is suddenly showing deep concern for the state, he said. "He is making unnecessary statements about the state's financial crisis but perhaps he is forgetting the massive amount of the previous BJP government. When the previous Congress government came into the office, HP was already burdened with a massive bill of ₹2,50,000 crore," he said.
