At ASEAN roundtable, EAM stresses need for trusted partners

DIVYA A NEW DELHI, NOVEMBER 8

HIGHLIGHTING THE ongoing transition and conflicts in the world, External Affairs Minister SJaishnakra on Friday stressed the need for having resilient supply chains, rusted partners and diversified production. Addressing the AEEAN-India Network of Think-Tanks in Singapore, he said, "India and AEEAN are major demographies whose emerging demands can not only support each other, but become larger productive forces in the international econ-omy." world, External Affairs Minister and challenges to international law have become a significant recurring source of instability." He added that the world has responded in different ways to different challenges in different geographies. "In our own, the emergence of the Indo-Pacific and the maturing of the Quad are noteworthy for promoting global good," he remarked. The Association of Southeast Asian Nations (ASEAN) members in-clude Brunei, Cambodia, Indonesia, Laos, Malaysia, Myanmar, the Philippines, Singapore, Thailand and Vietnam.

Jaishanlar said there are, and there will be political challenges in the shared region like Myanmar that India and ASEAN will have to address together. "As will have to address together." different challenges in different

Opp welcomes AMU verdict; regular bench will hear it: BJP

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE

SOON AFTER the Supreme Court SOONAFTER the Supreme Court overturned its own 1957 verdict that Aligarh Muslim University (AMU) is not a minority institution, Opposition parties welcomed the order with the Congress calling it a "bold" one, while the BJP saying that the minority status of the varsity will be determined by a regular bench. Senior Congress Leader and determined by a regular bench.

Senior Congress leader and Raiya Sabha MP Abhishek Singhvi said: "It is a bold verdict which recognises, restores and continues what was the core genesis of AMU namely comprehensive, progressive, modern education but with a focus on miscrifice who it was followers. minorities, who it was felt were deprived of that quality of education. The mere fact that the Central government gave the added lister by declaring it to be a Central institution camnot and should not be used to change its basic, original character namely that of a minority solch rights are recognised in our Constitution and it was high time that the court definitively settled an issue which was deliberately and somewhat mischievously sought to be unsetted by the powers that be, I am glad that the minorities, who it was felt were

Will resume our 'armed resistance' if 2015 pact not honoured: NSCN-IM

SUKRITA BARUAH

TWENTY-SEVEN years after agreeing to a ceasefire, the Isak-Muivah faction of the National Socialist Council of Nagaland (NSCN-IM) has issued an ultimatum to the Centre threatening to "resume the violent armed resistance accepted and if the sistance against India" if the Centre did not "honour" the 2015 Framework Agreement signed by the two parties to re-solve the Naga political problem. In a five-page statement signed by its general secretary Thuingaleng Muivah, the insur-Thuingaleng Muivah, the insur-gent group, said "we rule out peaceful means against the ig-nominious betrayal of the letter and spirit of the Framework Agreement of August 3, 2015". Last week, the NNFGs urga ac-cord this year itself based on a separate "Agreed Position" signed with them in 2017, An abapert impasse over the

An apparent impasse over the question of a separate Naga flag and constitution is one of the sticking points in the negotiation between NSCN I(M) and Centre.
